

We Can Make It Happen!, 2006, 18 pages, Jane Taubenfeld Cohen, 0976022036, 9780976022039, Kidzpoetz Publishing, 2006

The death of an extraordinary man inspires others to live as he did, caring for the sick, making people smile, and enjoying life. This book is written for children and grown ups who have suffered a loss, as a book of hope, and for those who have not suffered a loss, who simply can learn from the actions of this man to make every day count. Through the words, the illustrations, and even the colors, the reader understands that We Can Make It Happen! is for all of us. Jane Taubenfeld Cohen and her mother, Bea Taubenfeld, set out to tell the story of David Taubenfeld, brother and son, in a way that everyone can understand. This book is part of the healing process, with the direct inspiration from David's spirit, love of life, and unbelievable ability to make everyone feel special. Proceeds from the book will be given to the David Taubenfeld Scholarship Fund at the South Area Solomon Schechter Day School, in Massachusetts, where Jane is the Head of School.
